Dear Mr. Anderson,

There is a limit to what I can do and to how much I can try to do.

When you first wrote me I believe I told you this and that I could not engage in correspondence.

If I did not I'm sorry. I believe I did.

Since then I've grown older, not younger. I've developed some serious health problems. These further reduce the amount of time I can find for the work with which you are familiar.

It therefore would serve no purpose to send me the folder you propse. I'd not have time even to read it.

I'm amused, thought, that Arlen Specter asked your opinion on his proposed death sentence law. I did not know he was off on that one, too. So I suppose we'll soon hear of his running for office again. Pe haps it is ~~im~~ known in Penn. already.

Sorry I can be of any help. And that I just can't engage~~d~~ in any correspondence about your case.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
